

November 15, 2017

Thanksgiving greetings from Sixth Street Christian Church! Yes, I know, it's a bit early to wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving . . . well, unless you are in retail. In stores, we start celebrating Thanksgiving (and Christmas too) the day after Halloween. Doesn't life move quickly enough without this much pre-planning? Well, maybe not. The Shenandoah Ministerial Association (SMA) started planning for the community Thanksgiving service about mid-October, and it's a good thing. Since the SMA started ironing out the details, the location of the service has switched once, and the date did that times two. Just to be sure everyone knows the final, final answer, the community Thanksgiving service will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 19, 2017, at Tri-County Christian Church, 8660 N. Mechanicsburg Road, Middletown, Indiana 47356. How's that for specific? Consider this your personal invitation. For those of you who are new to the community, it will be an especially good time to meet the ministers and people from many of the churches in Middletown and surrounding area. Thanksgiving is a time for home and family, and there's a good chance you will find a place for yourself and the ones you love. Come sit around the table; there is room for everyone and always an extra chair.