Recently I did a Bible Study with some friends titled "God Sightings – Learning to Experience God Every Day." Each day, we were challenged to watch for ordinary things that reminded us of God. Here are a few that I noticed in just one day:

- A hummingbird returning to the feeder again and again reminded me that I need to feed on God's Word every day.
- A falling leaf, a seasonal phenomenon, prompted me to be ready to share the Good News in season and out of season.
- A strong wind evoked the story of the wind and waves obeying Jesus (Mark 4:35-41), and, of course, I should too.
- The setting sun brought to mind the scriptural admonition to not let the sun go down on my anger (Ephesians 4:26).

All of these God sightings made for a very interesting and joyful day. I encourage you to try it. You may find God in some unexpected things.
