Silent Expressions

I ponder this simple thought today
on how to express what words cannot say;
that fleeting emotion – a gleam in the eye;
or a gentle touch as two pass by.
All those things we want to say
as we go about a busy day;
constrained by the unseen hand of time
while we struggle to make that extra dime.
But a glorious sunset we behold toward the west
reminds us that time – at its best,
is not intended to rule our lives.
Are minutes perhaps just temporary guides?
So, as I look above toward the eastern sky
and acknowledge the God that's far yet nigh,
I breathe a prayer and bless you today,
To express with love what words cannot say.
