Happy September friends!

For me, September is like a rest stop. It's the month that ends summer and allows routines to fully settle back in. September is also a month of preparation. We are coming up on busy times and crazy schedules. The holidays are approaching and though there is a lot to look forward to, I encourage you to take a breath. Allow yourself to be filled and recognize the things in your life that have true meaning. Take time now to strengthen those relationships and commitments while also making cuts where necessary as well. Have a great month!

Blessings,

Pastor Charissa
