Hello from Sixth Street Christian Church! It's rather difficult to know who a person is without any specific information. You can observe what a person looks like on the outside and you can make certain assumptions, but to know what someone stands for and what that person does with his or her life, you need to get a look at the inside too. Churches are much the same. You can see the outside of the building and read the sign out front, but without specific information, the inside remains a mystery. Sixth Street is in the process of putting together a website to give people a closer look at who we are, what we do, and what we stand for. The address of our site is www.sixthstreetchristian.org. The homepage gives general information and includes a "Current Events" link to a calendar and links to our most recent newsletters. Tabs across the top include links to our "About Us" and "Christian Education" pages where you can read a brief history of the church's beginnings, get contact information, and get an introduction to our Sunday school and bible study. This is just the tip of the iceberg, and I invite you to check us out and find a place for yourself if you don't already have a church home. Hope to see you soon!
